JEFF THE FLYING PIG

Helping people to find their creativeness through the creator of all creativity

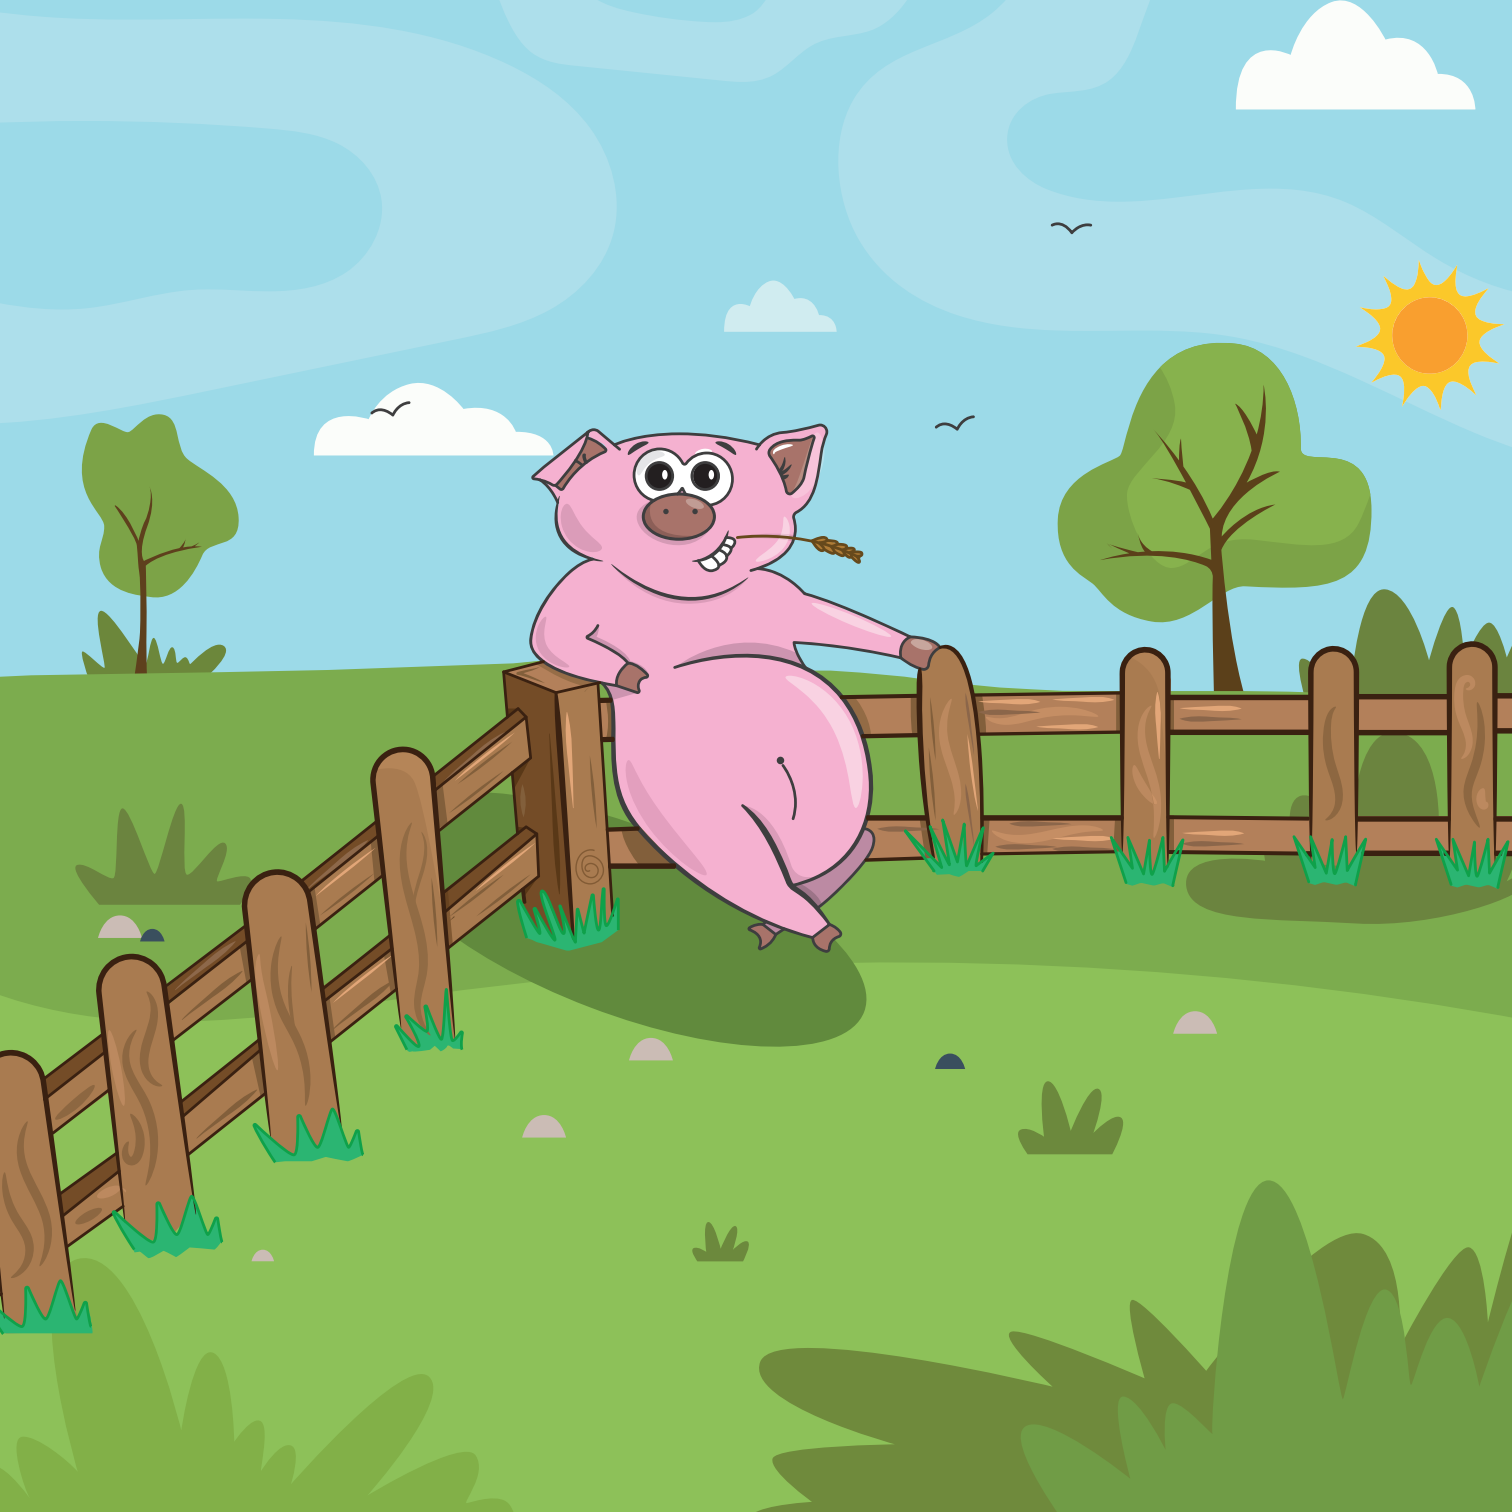

Original story by Chris Genge
Produced by Matthew Bagg
Illustration by Lucas Maggs

Once upon a time, there was a pig called Jeff.

Jeff was not an ordinary pig. Ohhhh no.

Jeff was a flying pig (or so he believed)

Jeff dreamt of people singing out to him as he sored through the sky.

‘Uuhhhh Oohhhhhh pig in the sky.

How on earth did you get so high.

I never knew that pigs could fly,

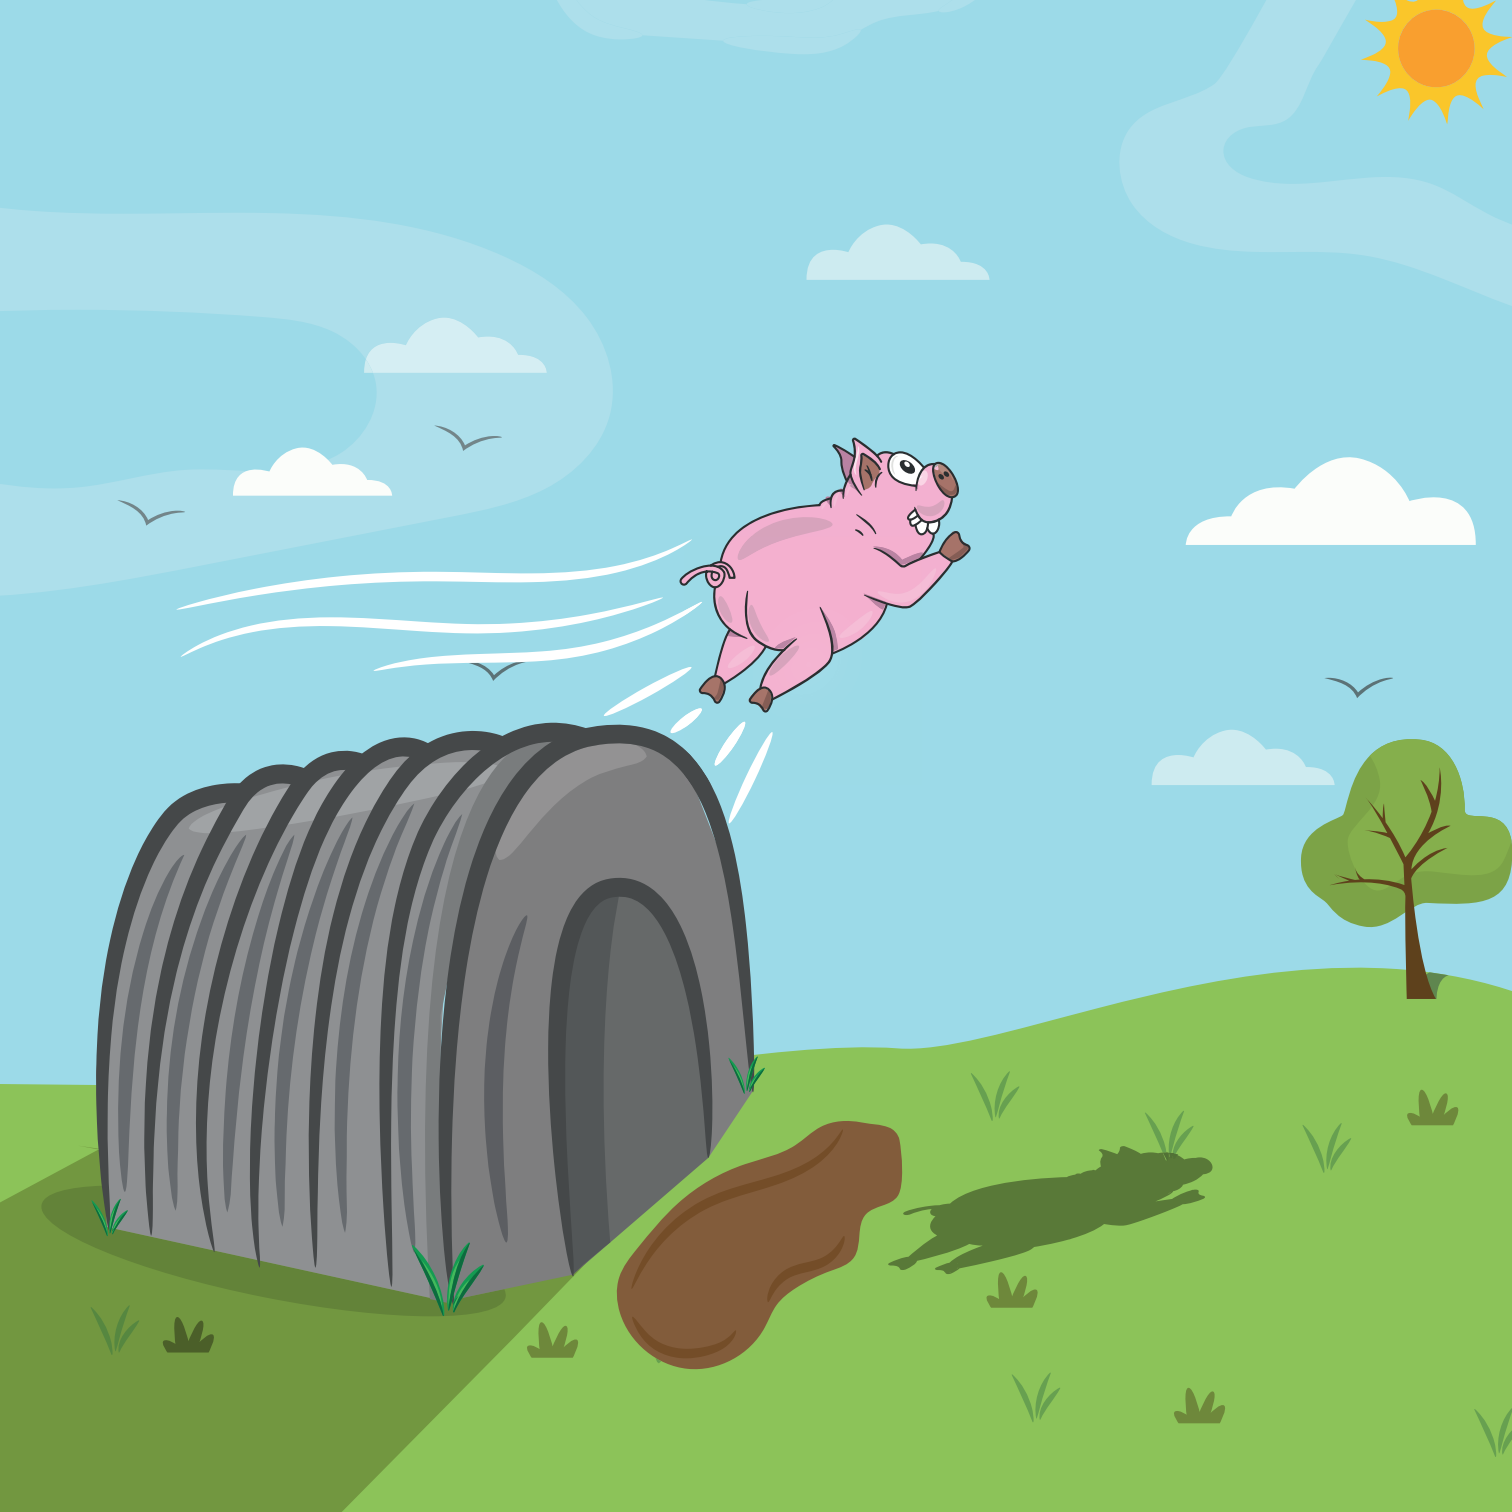

“Uuhhhh Oohhhhhh pig in the sky’

Jeff believed he just needed the right method to launch himself and he would be able to fly.

He had already tried many different ways, such as the running jump...

.....Which was a HUGE Belly flop!

SPLAT!

Big floaty balloons

VERY FLOATY GAS
BIG BALLOONS

Which were far from an uplifting experience,

(They didn’t even get him off the ground!)

The catapult!

Really grounded him!!
OOOOF!

The farmer loved fast food, and gave all his left overs to Jeff!

Jeff also loved fast food and hated vegetables!

In fact when ever they were given to him, he refused to eat them.

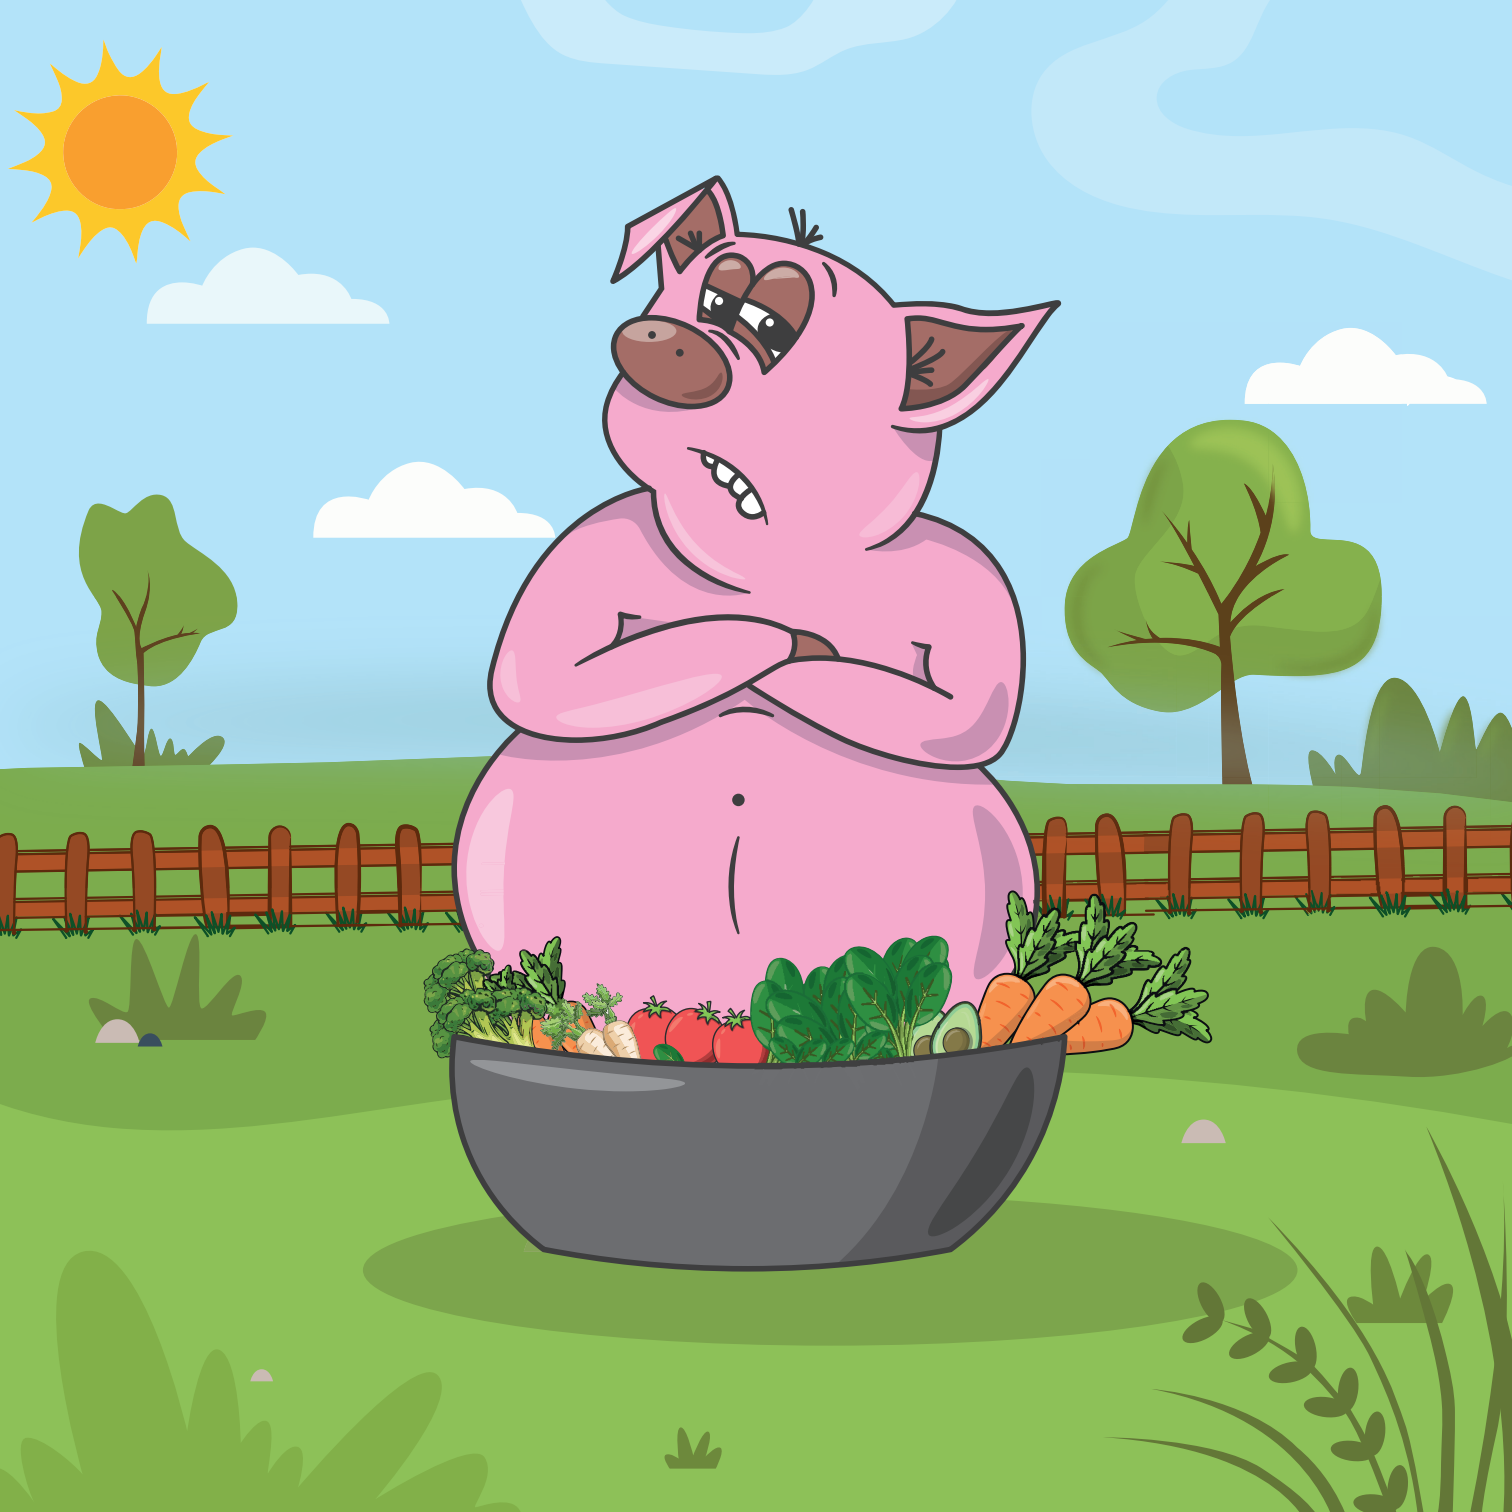

BURP!
rumble!

One day, a vet visited the farm and warned the farmer that Jeff needed to eat healthier as he was very round and had a big tummy.

The Farmer changed Jeff's diet straight away.

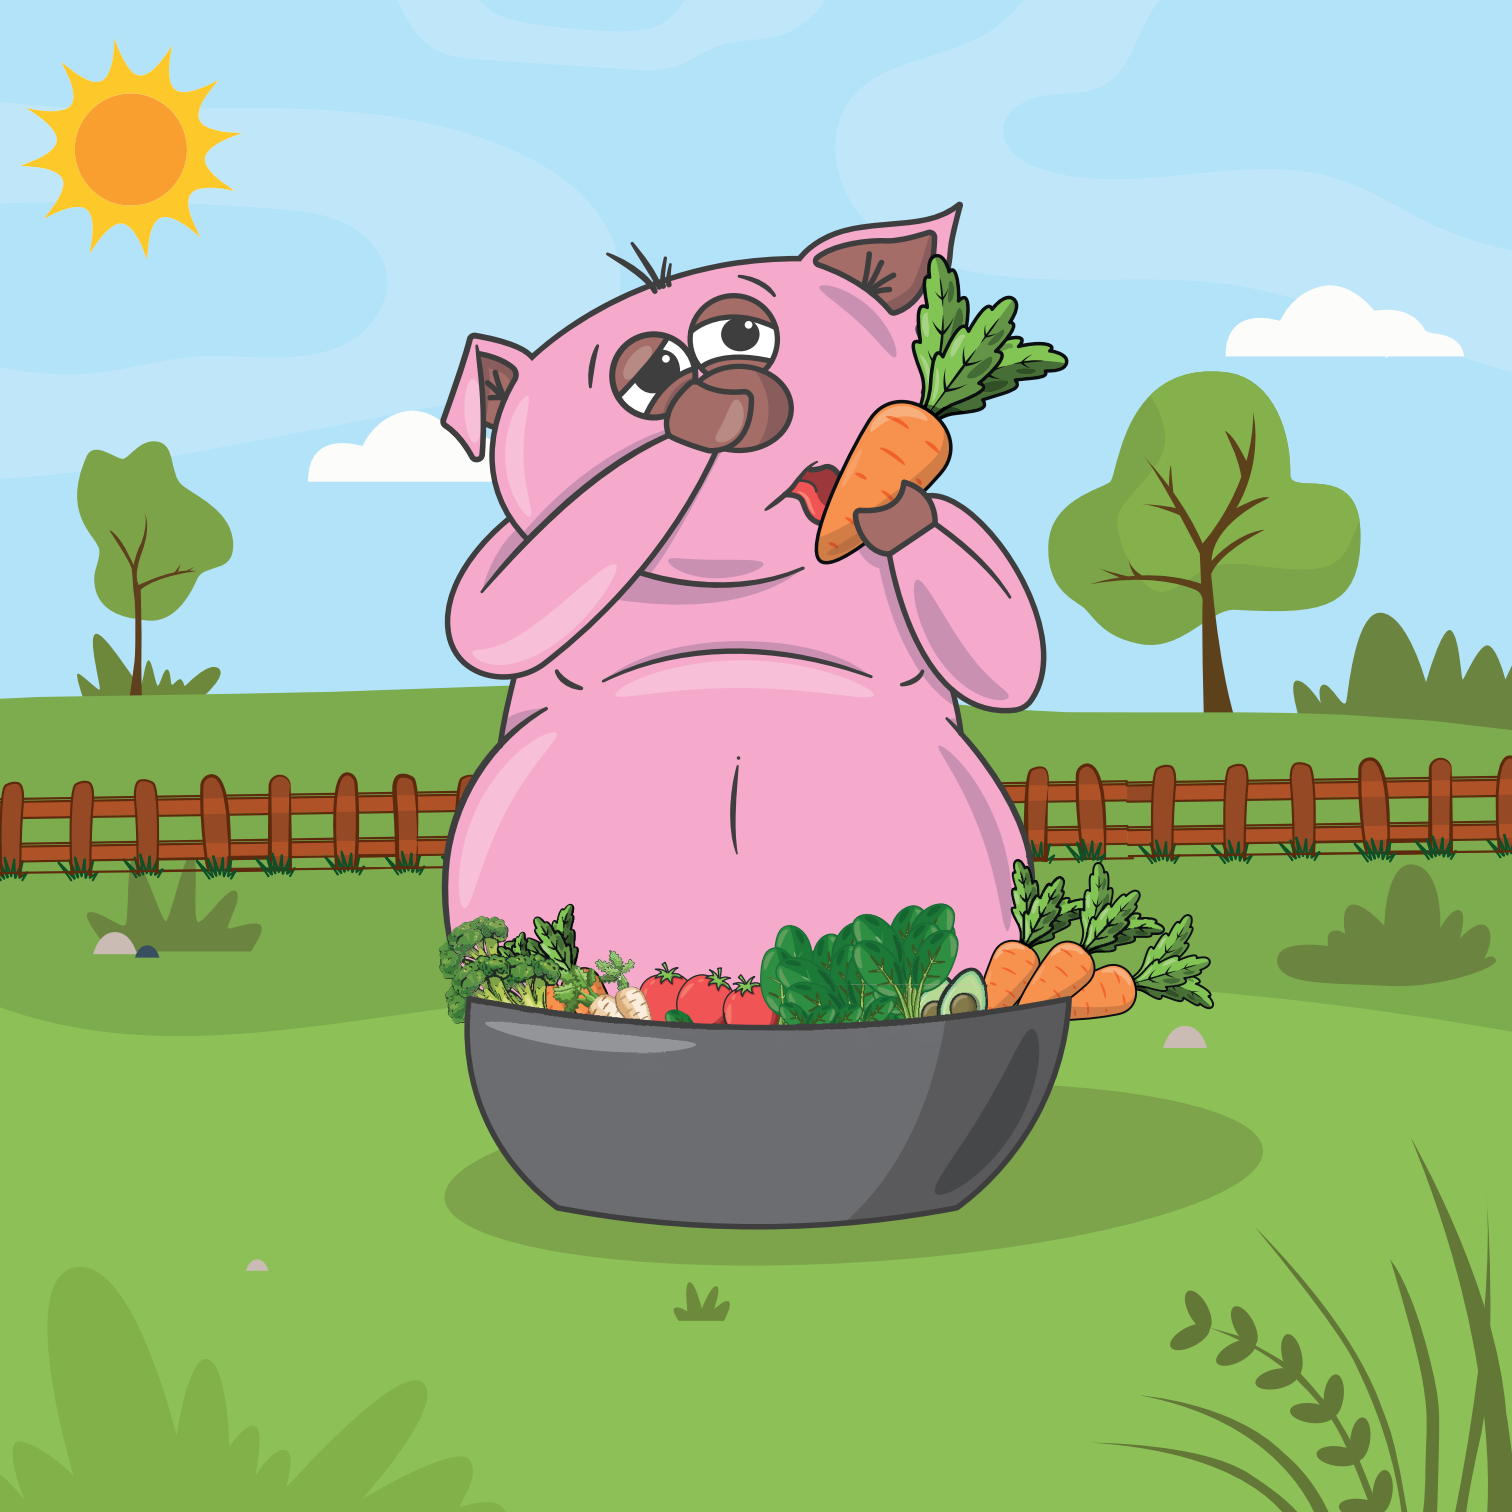

However, Jeff could not stand the thought of eating boring vegetables and refused to even try them.

Jeff started to feel hungry, so whilst nobody was looking, he had a thought.

Perhaps he should not be so silly and give them a try, after all the rabbits seemed to loved them.

Jeff then sniffed a carrot and then gave it little lick...

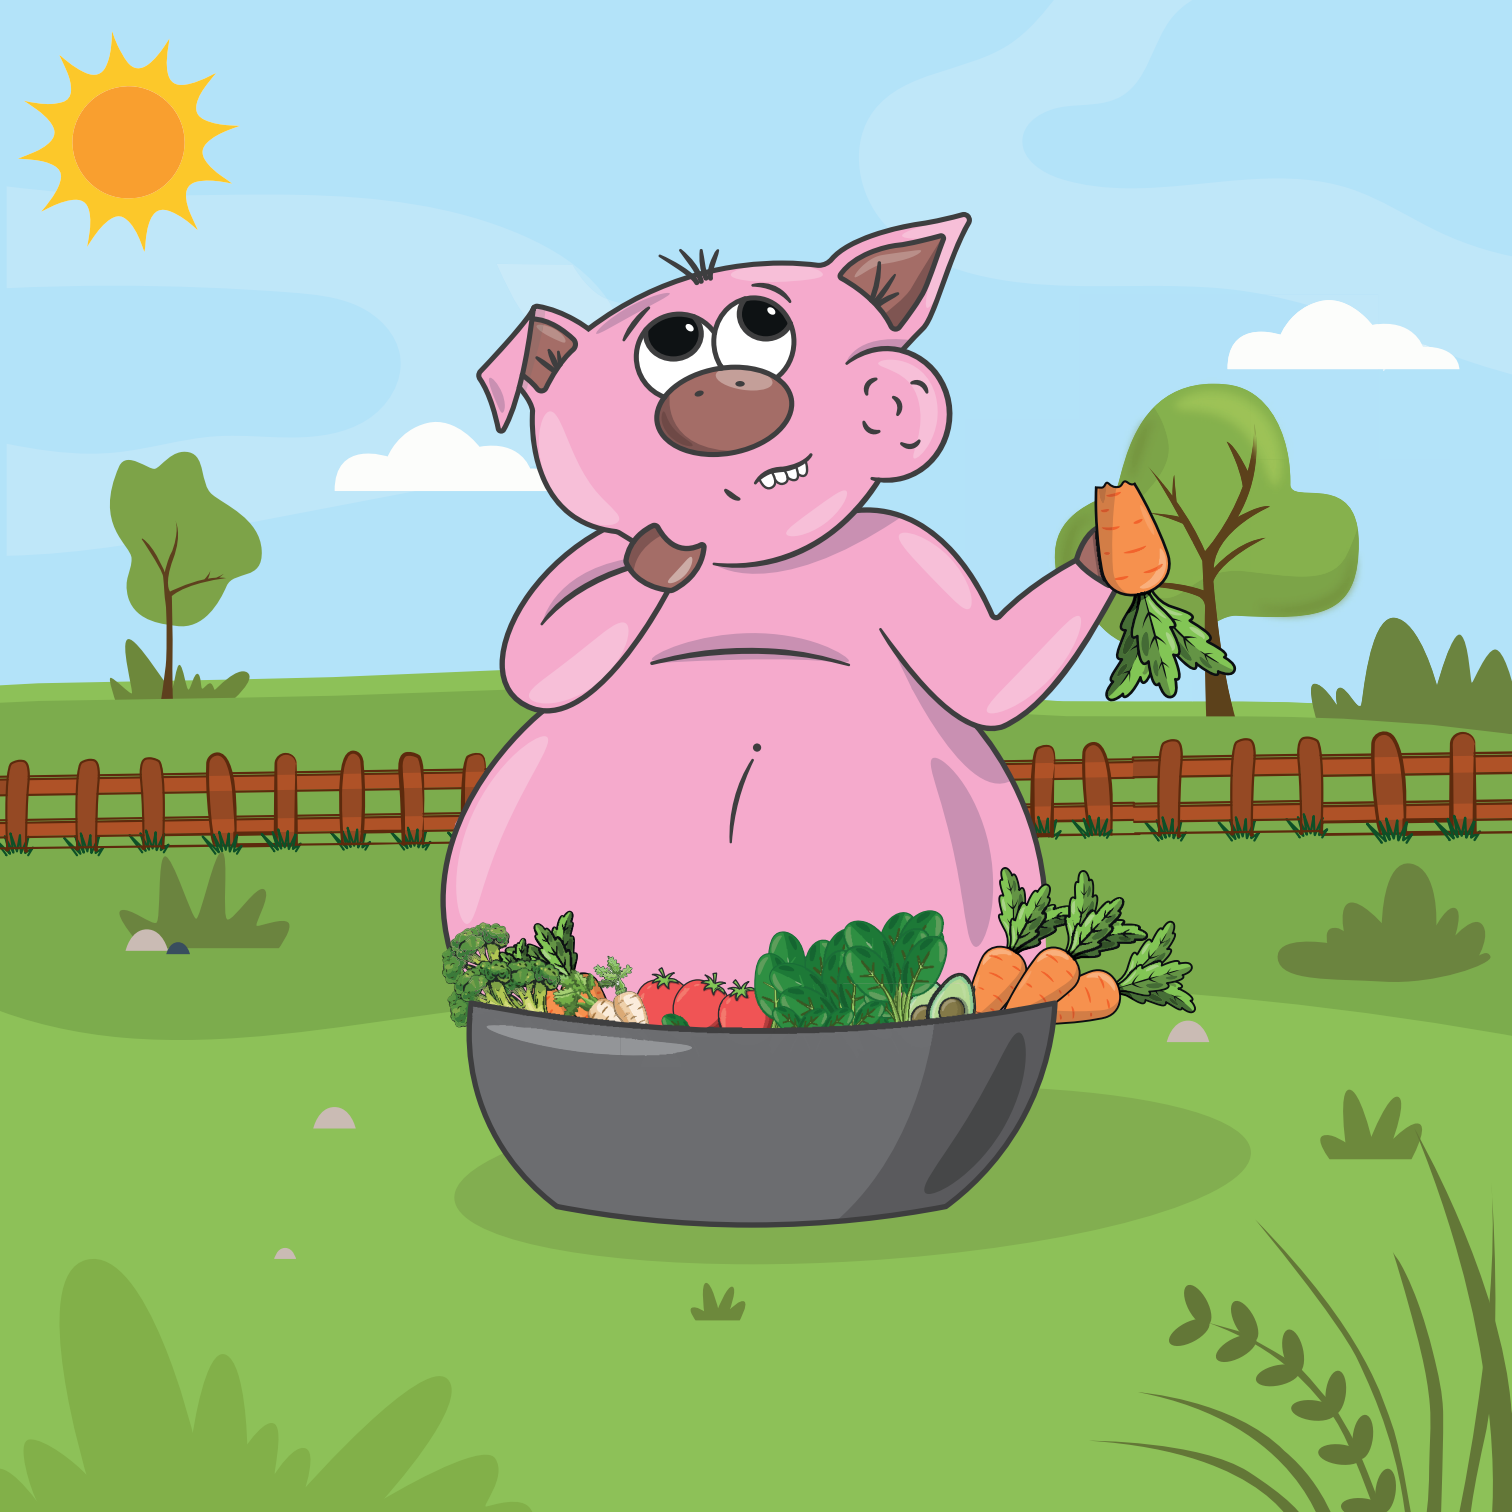

Eventually Jeff plucked up the courage

(and partly because he was really hungry)

Jeff gave the carrot a little nibble

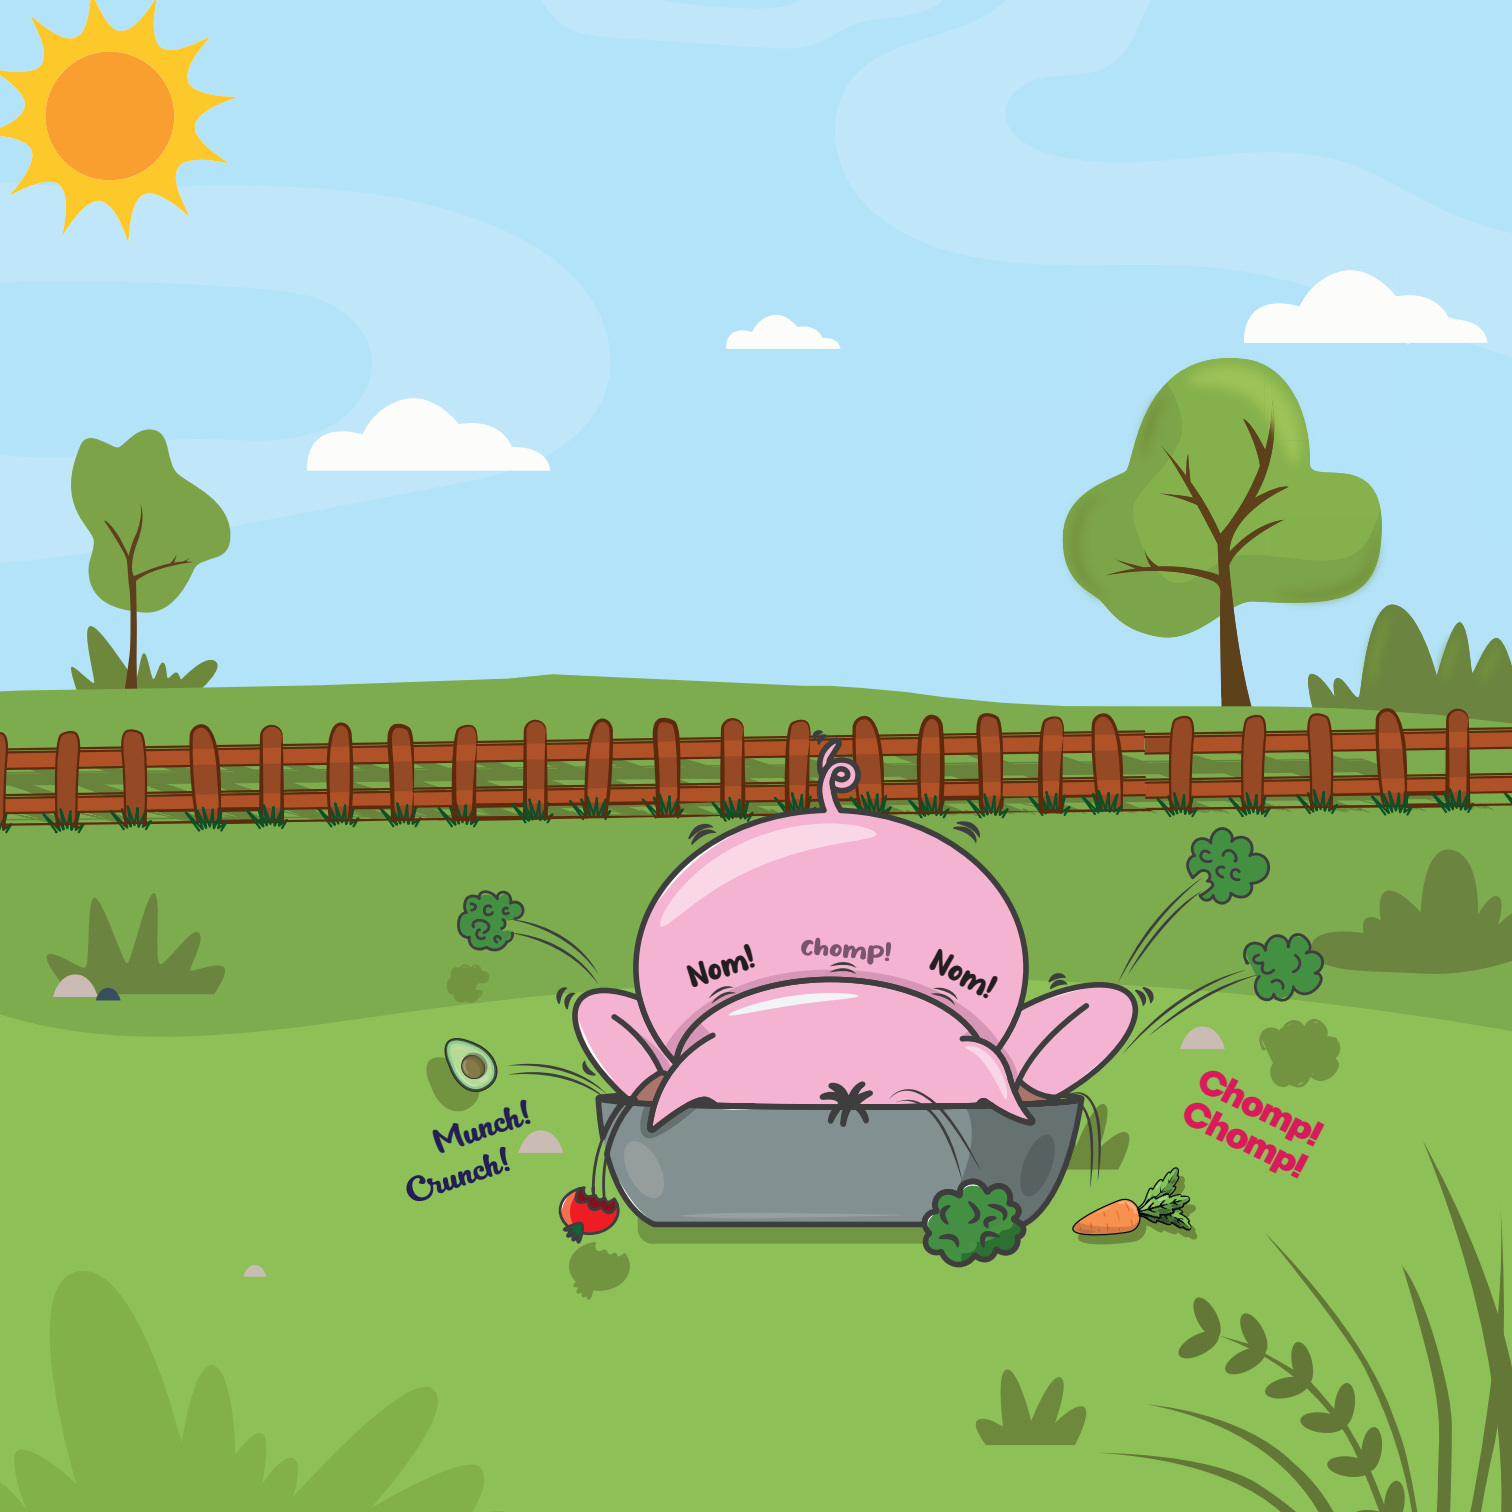

‘Hmmm it’s not so bad’ he thought.’

And then a bite. ‘In fact, this is really good’.

In fact it wasn’t long before Jeff was back to eating as normal...

But this time healthier and he loved it.

Nom!
Chomp!
Nom!
Munch!
Crunch!
Chomp!
Chomp!

After eating nothing but vegetables for a few days, Jeff found they had a strange effect on him!

At first, it took him completely by surprise..... PARRRP!!!

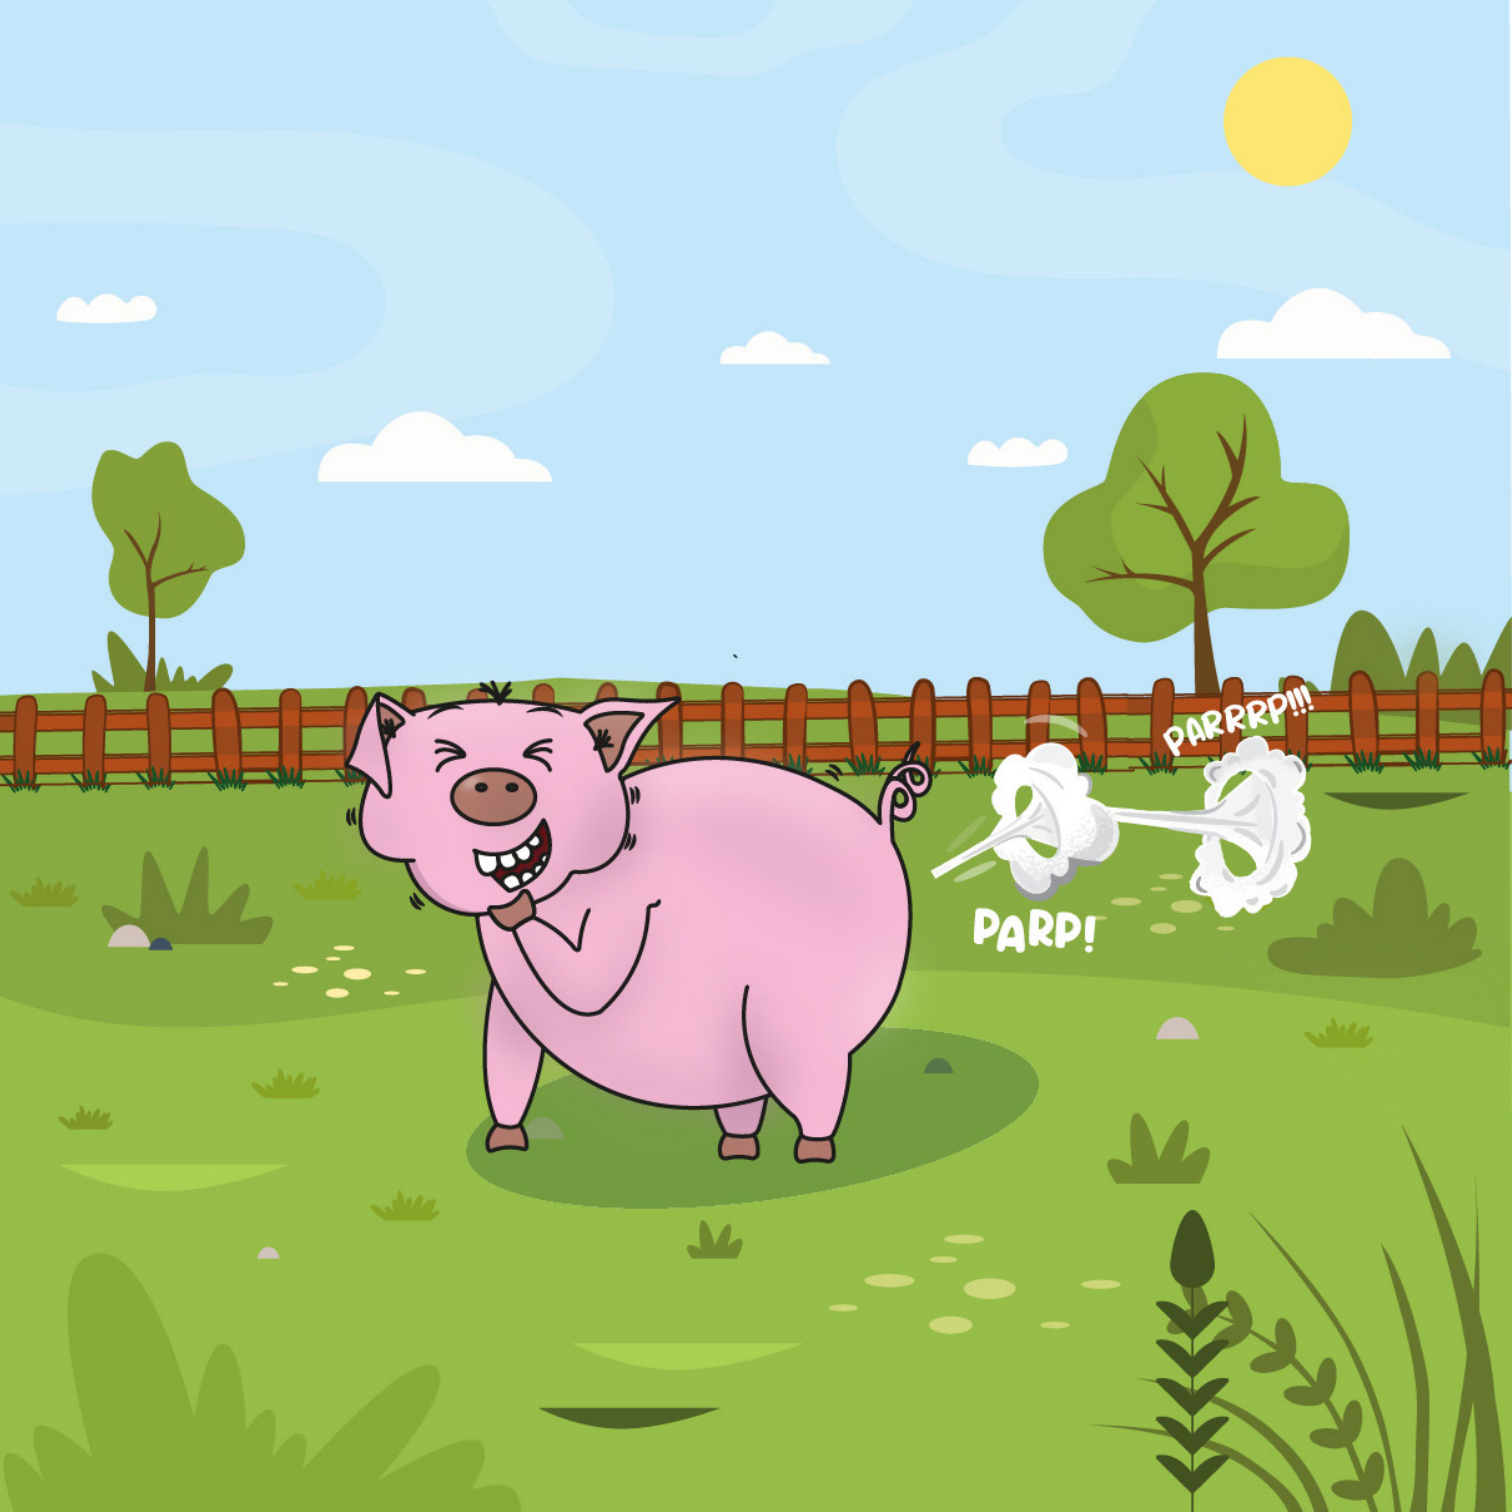

PA RRRP!

In fact, the more vegetables Jeff ate, the windier and windier he became!

This made Jeff giggle and laugh out loud.

PARRRP!!!
PARP!

After eating nothing but vegetables for a few weeks, Jeff was feeling really good in himself.

At around midday, Jeff went for his usual daily afternoon nap.

Whilst he was asleep, something very strange started to happen to him.....

Jeff let out a very excited “OINK OINK”

and at the same time a huge

Which propelled him out of his sty and up, up into the sky.

Jeff let out a very excited “OINK OINK” and at the same time a huge PARRRP!!! Which propelled him out of his sty and up, up into the sky.

Jeff flew about all over the sky, but he wasn't very good at controlling his directions!

All of a sudden, Jeff found himself heading straight towards someone's washing line, before.....

..... CRASH!!!

UH
OH!

After hitting the washing line and making a terrible mess. Jeff came out the other side looking very different indeed!

On his back, Jeff had a apron with a daisy on the front pocket which looked like a cape.

On his head, was some ladies underwear, which looked like a mask.

...Jeff now looked like a superhero flying pig!

People gasped in amazement as Jeff flew through the air.

One of the villagers pointed up and said

“ A flying pig! ..... Well I never “

The people started to sing out loud.

‘Uuhhhh Oohhhhhh pig in the sky.

How on earth did you get so high.

I never knew that pigs could fly,

“Uuhhhh Oohhhhhh pig in the sky’

Gasp!

As Jeff flew around, he quickly started running out of wind power.

After a few more minutes he fell from the sky, landing in a pond with a huge

Jeff LOVED his flying adventure! He felt amazing after eating his veggies. The farmer and vet agreed: just enough veggies to keep him on the ground.

But Jeff was secretly saving some for his next big adventure!

Remember, doing the things you don’t like to do, will bring out the super-hero in you!

CLUELESS providing the opportunity to creativeness through all forms of creativity inspired by the creator.

This work is a piece of fiction. All names, characters, places, and incidents are either the product of the author's imagination or are used fictitiously.

The story was written for my children, with my children Daniel and Max Genge as they grew up. However, it would be 12 years later, in the plandemic lock down, that the story would make it to paper with drawings and illustrations.

I GIVE SPECIAL THANKS TO:

Matt Bagg and Clueless for giving me this wonderful opportunity to publish my book. Lucas Maggs for the full illustration of every page of this book, without him this wouldn't of been possible.

Community Farm and Valleyfest in Chew Stoke. Russel Brooks for giving me the inspiration on the chorus.

Paula Lucas for her support in writing the book on furlough when I should have been doing DIY! I dedicate this book to the memory of my father Malcolm Genge and pay tribute to him and his Garage in Chew Stoke on page 3 as neither are still with us.

To Chew Valley Parish Council for their support in naming the new close where the garage stood, Malcolm Close.

Jeff the flying pig, is about an over weight, flatulent pig who is convinced that with the correct method of launch, he would be able to fly.

Obviously he cant, as pigs cant fly..... Or can they??
